Up To Jerusalem

Jesus has been moving toward Jerusalem for His entire life. Of course we know that He has been to Jerusalem before. He went there with His family as a child, and there are several stories in the Bible about things He did there during His ministry. But when He told His disciples in Luke 18 that they were going “up to Jerusalem,” that phrase took on a different meaning. Everything in His life on Earth was leading to what was about to happen. Even as Jesus explained it to them again, they still did not know exactly what He meant. But He knew. Jesus knew all along what that journey toward Jerusalem would mean for Him. His disciples did not yet realize that it would also change their lives forever. Following Jesus had not always been easy, but it was about to get substantially more difficult. As a result, many of His followers would leave. However those who stayed would grow in faith and boldness and would continue to live out the teachings of Jesus while telling His story. The Southwest Church of Christ is here because they followed the command of Jesus to “Go and make disciples.” Those disciples made more disciples who in turn made more for generations until the disciples here at Southwest came along. Since we continue to fill that role here in Ada, we might ask ourselves the question, “What does a disciple look like?” If that’s who we are, it should be unmistakable to people around us. In his book, D2: Becoming a Devoted Follower of Christ, Phil McKinney answers the question of what a disciple looks like with these characteristics:

- A disciple is committed. (2 Corinthians 5:15)
- A disciple is obedient. (1 John 5:1-5)
- A disciple is a lifelong learner. (Proverbs 9:9-10)
- A disciple is a fruit bearer. (Galatians 5:22-23)
- A disciple is devoted to prayer and practices. (Luke 11:1-4)
- A disciple is shaped by the Word. (Acts 17:11)
- A disciple is a servant. (Acts 6:1-4)
- A disciple is a witness. (Matthew 28:18-20)
- A disciple is a cheerful giver. (1 Corinthians 16:1-2)
- A disciple is faithful. (Hebrews 10:24-25)

As we strive to be better disciples and to fulfill the great commission to make more disciples, let’s consider what that looks like and how we can continue to grow in these areas.

- Brian

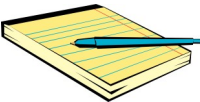

“How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, ‘Your God reigns.’” (Isaiah 52:7)

Family News & Updates

Joe Hudson, Glenda Lillard's brother, was flown to the Oklahoma Heart Hospital North in Oklahoma City on Monday. He is having some major health struggles at this time and is having multiple tests run to see what the problem is. He is a member of the Allen church of Christ and the family would really appreciate your prayers.

Tony Pippen had a procedure done Thursday at Mercy Hospital Ada. Please keep him in your prayers.

Mary Conley: The mass in Mary's lung has grown and her blood work indicates that she needs to have more tests run. Please pray that her tests reveal what God has planned for us. We covet your prayers.

Alan Johnson is not doing well after his stroke. He is in Mercy Hospital Oklahoma City. Please keep Alan and Kerrie in your prayers.

Our sympathy goes to Bobby and Gayle Johns on the passing of their brother-in-law, Coy Tugman. His service was Tuesday in Blanchard.

Our sympathy goes to Katie and Shelby Meaders on the passing of their step-mother, Frannie Meaders. Her service was Monday in Wewoka.

We want to welcome Bill and Pat Guinn to our Southwest family! They placed their membership with us last Sunday. We are very glad to have them come be a part of our family.

Congratulations to Sue Silkey, Carla West, Allen and Roy! The boys had their final adoption hearing Tuesday morning and everything went well. Their new names are now Allen Cash West and Roy Dennis West. Sue and Carla will be having a get together on April 14th to celebrate their adoption. That information will be in the bulletin soon.

HELP NEEDED: Shirley Gatewood is in need of someone who has a chainsaw to come and cut down a large branch, in one of her trees, that could potentially fall soon. If you could do this for her, please call the office as soon as possible.

Ladies Prayer Group will meet today and on April 14th at 4 pm.

All ladies are invited to a baby shower for Linden Hatton! It will be today at 3:30 pm in the fellowship building. She is having a girl and is registered at Walmart, Target and Amazon.

All ladies are invited to a baby shower for Danielle Adams! It will be Sunday, April 7th at 3:30 pm in the fellowship building. She is having a boy and is registered at Amazon and BuyBuyBaby.com.

Wednesday Night for the Master will be April 3rd. Dinner will start at 6 pm in the fellowship building. Butch Platt will be giving the devo.

Golden Doers Luncheon will be April 7th in the fellowship building following morning services. If you are 60 or older, please join us.

Power for Today daily devotional books for April through June are available in the foyer. These books are a great help for daily personal or family devotional time. Please take only one per family, so there will be some left for others who would like them. If you would like to order additional copies, you can visit their website at powerfortoday.com or call 1-800-331-5991.

EEM Dinner is April 2nd for those who have signed up.

Upcoming Ladies' Days: There are a couple of different Ladies' Days coming up in April. One is on April 6th at the Wewoka church starting at 10 am and the other one is on April 13th at the Durant church starting at 9 am. There is more information on these events on the north bulletin board in the back part of the foyer.

Upcoming Gospel Meetings: There are two different gospel meetings starting today. One is at the Wayne church, speaker Troy Yandell & the other is at the Prague church, speaker Floyd Kaiser. There is more information on the north bulletin board in the back part of the foyer.
