All To Us

In January I introduced you to the theme for our Sunday morning lessons this year, “All to Us.” The lyrics by Chris Tomlin connect with many themes from scripture (Colossians 2:9-10, Colossians 3:11, Acts 4:11-12 and much of the book of Hebrews). My hope was to emphasize that Jesus is sufficient for us. The plan for 2020 began by looking at His life in the gospel of John. COVID came along in March, I learned to preach to my phone on a tripod, and the schedule changed some. However, the fact that Jesus is sufficient remains true. Given the instability of things in our nation and world since March, His sufficiency is a comforting thought. And now as I type these words, it is two days after the election with no definitive winner. Although things seem uncertain, we know that God is on the throne.

Now that we have finished the Sermon on the Mount series, the change in schedule has brought us to a topic that fits our current situation well. Through the rest of November we will talk about Jesus and prayer. Each week we will look at a theme from one of the prayers of Jesus and why it is important in our walk with Him. It will be a time to understand Him better, to recommit to our own prayer habits and to refocus on praying about the things Jesus did.

Learning from the prayers of Jesus is another way to remind ourselves that He is all to us.

- Brian

Thank you to all of the teachers and those who made it possible to have Bible class at home. Your hard work and efforts are greatly appreciated.

Dear Brethren, Many thanks and all our gratitude to each and everyone of you who lovingly supported us during our recent illness through prayers, "get well" note cards, phone calls, cooking and shopping trips, and even by cutting our lawn! Your loving kindnesses will be remembered for a long time. "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you." Philippians 1:3 - A new prayer request: Your prayers are coveted for two of my brothers, who were recently diagnosed with cancer; especially Cornelius, who is only 62 years old and has advanced liver cancer. Thank you and may the Lord richly reward every labor of love on behalf of His Body, His Bride. Yours by His grace, Steve and Daniela Iorga

Dear SW Family, We want to express our gratitude for all the prayers and acts of kindness shown our family during Don's hospital stay and as he recovers. In Christ, The Don Byrd Family

Thank you for all your love, support and understanding.

Love, Macy & Ryan
