The Prayers of Jesus

Last Sunday we began a series about the prayers of Jesus. When we consider how little of the life of Jesus is recorded in the gospels, it is striking how frequently it is mentioned that He spends time in prayer. Luke alone shares nine instances where Jesus prays. Seven of those are unique to Luke’s gospel account.

- 1. Jesus prays at His baptism. (Luke 3:21)
- 2. Jesus prays after healing a leper. (Luke 5:16)
- 3. Jesus prays before calling His apostles. (Luke 6:12)
- 4. Jesus prays with His disciples. (Luke 9:18)
- 5. Jesus prays at His transfiguration. (Luke 9:28)
- 6. Jesus prays when teaching His disciples to pray. (Luke 11:1)
- 7. Jesus prays for Peter. (Luke 22:32)
- 8. Jesus prays for those crucifying Him. (Luke 23:34)
- 9. Jesus prays before His death on the cross. (Luke 23:46)

In fact, prayer is part of Luke’s telling of the story of Jesus from before His birth (Luke 1:10,13) to His presentation as a baby at the temple (Luke 2:38) to His final words on the cross (Luke 23:46). Through his emphasis on the prayers of Jesus, Luke is illustrating the close relationship that Jesus has with the Father. That kind of relationship required frequent prayer. In the book of Acts, Luke makes it clear that the disciples and the early church got the message. They are constantly spending time in prayer.

If we want to improve our relationship with God, regular prayer is a good place to begin. It is something Jesus taught His followers and put into practice Himself. We should do the same.

Family Matters

Karen Stonecipher's father, Charles Thompson, is struggling with some health issues at this time. Please keep him in your prayers.

Please keep Connie McKinney in your prayers as she is still going through her cancer treatments.

Lessons From Noah's Ark

One: Don't miss the boat.

Two: Remember that we are all in the same boat.

Three: Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark.

Four: Stay fit. When you're 600 years old, someone may ask you to do something really big.

Five: Don't listen to critics; just get on with the job that needs to be done.

Six: Build your future on high ground.

Seven: For safety's sake, travel in pairs.

Eight: Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.

Nine: When you're stressed, float a while.

Ten: Remember, the Ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.

Eleven: No matter the storm, when you are with God, there's always a rainbow waiting.

In Celebration!

Ethan Eck and Haley Sargent will be married this month and be on the mission field by early December.

If you would like to "shower" them with love, there is a table in the foyer where you can place a gift or card.

The table will be left up throughout the month of November.

The couple is registered at Walmart.com and at Amazon.com.

(If you are ordering from Amazon, you can find their registry under Ethan Eck's name. The gift will automatically be sent to Michigan to make their move easier.)

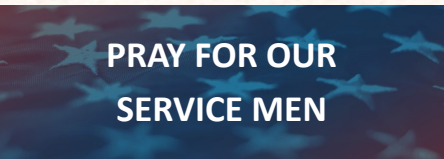

They want to thank you for your love and support and wish they could celebrate in person with each of you.
